Magnesium Flares Are Thrown At Mounted Police

Associated Press Staff. Paris, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The rioting in Paris was a scene of wild tumult until late tonight as infuriated royalists rioted against thousands of mounted police.

Elaborate precautions had been taken against a repetition of the anti-government demonstrations, but the monarchists, armed with clubs and stones, broke through the lines of mounted police and threw magnesium flares at the mounted officers.

313 WEST STATE ST. THE HOME OF SUDDEN SERVICE PHONE 1104

Urban, Ill., Jan. 27.—If Illinois farmers made just one New Year's resolution—to feed their milk cows balanced rations this year—they would get at least $12,000,000 worth of "relief" in feed bills, says J. G. Cash, assistant in dairy extension at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

All they would have to do in order to pocket this cash would be to save $1 a month a cow in the feeding of the 1,111,000 cows now on farms of the state.

This is an extremely conservative goal, Cash believes, because it is based upon accurate records taken on cows owned by progressive dairymen who are members of dairy herd improvement associations organized by the extension service of the agricultural college. Considering all dairy herds of the state, it is likely that a change from the almost universal use of unbalanced rations to balanced might save much more than the $12,000,000 total in 12 months.

"That this is not an unreasonable possibility is shown by actual records from dairy herd improvement association herds. In Knox county, for instance, a new member of a herd improvement association was feeding an unbalanced ration of farm grains to his 14 cows. He revised his feeding methods, as suggested by the extension service, and reduced his feed cost $15.06 in one month without lowering his production level.

"One month a new member of the Kankakee association fed 2,520 pounds of an unbalanced ration. The next month he fed 2,511 pounds of a balanced ration with the result that his feed bill was $7.40 less than the previous month. Here, again, there was no change in the cows' milk production.

"By changing his ration from corn, oats and a high-priced protein supplement to corn, oats, bran and cottonseed meal, a Christian county dairyman reduced the price of his ration 11 cents a hundredweight without affecting production. This will make a saving of approximately $36 for the year on his herd of 18 cows."

Survey 2 Historic Buildings in City as Federal Project

Architects employed under the Historical American Building Survey, which is a part of the CWA, have begun work in this city. Two local structures have been selected for the survey. They are the Duncan Memorial Home of the D. A. R. and Beecher Hall on the Illinois College campus.

Clarence Buckingham is supervising architect for the southeastern section of Illinois, and is being assisted by Russell Dunlap of this city and Mr. Bullard of Springfield. Historic buildings through this section will be surveyed under this project.

The surveys are to be accurate and detailed. The architects take careful measurements of the buildings, make impressions of the moulding and other portions which carry designs of historic nature, and draw plans which would enable builders to restore the structures at any time. These surveys will be preserved as a part of the historical records of the country.

The buildings surveyed must have been erected prior to 1850. Beecher Hall was built in the latter part of 1828, and the Duncan home was constructed by Gov. Joseph Duncan, one of the pioneer executives of Illinois and a prominent citizen of early Jacksonville. Both are places of great historic interest, and the survey now being made will be a most valuable record in the future.

J. A. Weeks of Arenza was a Saturday business visitor in the city.

Greet Newlyweds With Charivari

White Hall, Jan. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker of East St. Louis, came Thursday to remain over until Sunday in Mrs. Baker's home on Apple Creek Prairie, and while they were here a group of friends gathered at their home and gave them an old-fashioned charivari. They were married January 6 and went immediately to East St. Louis to reside. Mrs. Baker was formerly Mrs. Maude Baldwin. Mr. Baker went on from here to Carthage Friday on a business trip, and will return this way back to St. Louis. He is employed by a commission firm in East St. Louis Stock Yards.

Harry Lorton and Harry Nash made a business trip to East St. Louis Wednesday. Mr. Lorton is a state highway maintenance patrolman. Mrs. Edward Hardy and twin daughters of Manchester were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ellington on Jacksonville street Friday and Saturday.

Robert Piper who is a junior medical student in the St. Louis University, came home Friday to remain until Tuesday of next week during the semester vacation with his mother, Mrs. Howard Piper on West Bridgeport street.

R. S. Worcester, cashier of the White Hall National Bank, remains critically ill at his home on West Bridgeport.

Mrs. C. C. Brown who has been ill with influenza was able to be down town Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sarah Boyd of Alton is a medical patient in the White Hall hospital.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Emmons, who reside on the Pansy McAdams farm north of the city, Monday, January 22, a daughter, who is the second child, both girls.

Hostess to Baptist Class

Mrs. Henry Bishop was hostess to the members of the Daughters of Faith class of the First Baptist church at her home Thursday evening. She was assisted by the officers for 1934 who are Miss Marian Band, president; Mrs. Henry Bishop, vice-president; Mrs. Stanley Moore, secretary; Mrs. Claude Shive, treasurer; and Mrs. Laura Pritchett, teacher. There were twenty-four ladies present. Miss Mina White led the devotions, and following a brief business session the time was spent with games. A refreshment course was served.

The Loyal Women's class of the Christian church entertained their husbands at a tony tury party at the home of Mrs. L. O. Goodrich on North Main street, Thursday evening. Mrs. Goodrich was assisted by Mrs. M. Dole and Mrs. H. C. Windt. Besides the husbands, Mr. and Mrs. John Purnbach from Lorton Prairie and Mrs. Ethel Dyer Hamilton of Urbana, were guests. Some of the folks came dressed backward with false faces and in other humorous attire and refreshments were served on the upside-down plates and other things keeping with the tony tury idea.

Mrs. A. E. Linfield was hostess to the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church at the parsonage Friday afternoon. Mrs. Otis Lemon had charge of the lesson and Mrs. C. W. Whitaker had charge of the Mystery Box. A refreshment course was served.

The Loyal Daughters class of the Christian church served a cafeteria supper at the church Thursday evening which netted the class $17.

New Feature in S. S.

Miss Mildred Hamilton who teaches the primary class in the Methodist church, has inaugurated a new feature in the school and holds a mid-week session on Tuesday afternoon. She calls for the children in her car and takes them to the church where they spend an hour or so and then return them to their homes.

Some of the children live in the country and the rest are scattered in different parts of town, which makes it quite a chore to rather than up and return them to their homes.

John Davidsmeyer Dies of Pneumonia Saturday Morning

John H. Davidsmeyer of 513 Sandusky street died at 2 o'clock Saturday morning at Piquette hospital from pneumonia after a short illness. Mr. Davidsmeyer had been ill since last Sunday.

He was well known in Morgan and Cass counties, particularly in the Beardstown and Arenzville communities where most of his life was spent. He had lived in Jacksonville for the past two and a half years.

Mr. Davidsmeyer was born in Hanover, Germany, coming to this country at the age of fourteen years. The family settled at Arenzville.

He was united in marriage in November, 1897, with Marie Reither, who survives, together with three sons, Paul J. Davidsmeyer, R. H. Davidsmeyer and E. J. Davidsmeyer, all of this city; two brothers, Christopher of Fitzgerald, Ga.; Ernest of Alexander, Ill.; two sisters, Mrs. John Wessel, Beardstown, and Mrs. Joe Kohler, Waymouth, Mass., and six grandchildren. One son preceded him in death in infancy.

From 1897 to 1908 Mr. Davidsmeyer lived in Beardstown, where he was employed by the C. & O. railroad. He then moved to a farm 7 miles east of Arenzville and remained until two and a half years ago when he moved to Jacksonville.

The remains were prepared for burial at the Williamson Funeral Home, and Sunday morning will be removed to the home of his son, R. H. Davidsmeyer at 291 Sandusky street.

The funeral services will be held at the son's home at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, and at 2:30 o'clock at St. John's Lutheran church at Beardstown. Rev. J. G. Kupper of this city will officiate. Interment will be made in the Osgen cemetery.

PARENTS OF SON

Word has just been received of the birth of a son Jan. 6 at St. Anthony's hospital, Rock Island, Ill., to Mr. and Mrs. M. W. DeSola. The baby has been named Armand Barry. The father was formerly Miss Araminta Agatt of Jacksonville.

Here's what a Famous Racing Driver
says about

The NEW FORD V-8

"I PICKED a Ford V-8 for the 1933 Stock Car Race at Elgin and I thought it was a great car when it brought me home in front. It takes a lot of automobile to average 80.22 miles an hour for 200 miles over a course like that.

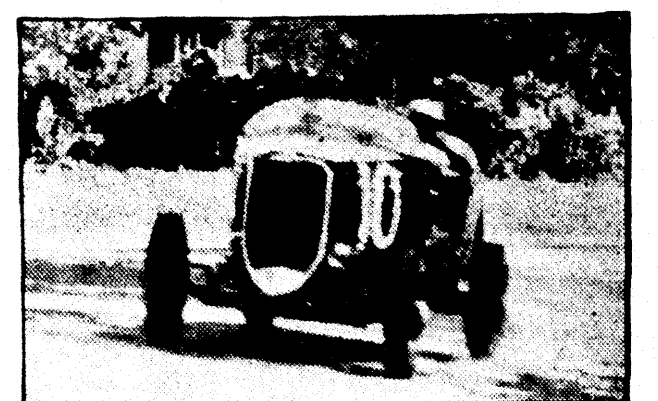

"When I heard that the 1934 Ford V-8 was even better than the 1933 job I was just a little doubtful. It just didn't seem possible, but I thought I'd find out.

"I could see it was better-looking, but I wasn't much interested in that. The thing a racing driver looks at is the engine. How does it sound? How is it built? How fast will it go? How does it stack-up on gas and oil?

"So I took it out on the road and opened it up. It held the road like a veteran and the way that speedometer touched the top numbers was something to talk about. If I'd had that car in the Elgin race I'd have averaged closer to 90 than 80.

"You can put me down as saying this New Ford V-8 is going to go places in 1934. It's a sweet job all the way through and that new dual carburetion system is going to save you a lot of money on gasoline."

Jerseyville at J. H. S.

With only one conference game scheduled for this week, activity in the Illinois Valley conference will be down over Pittsfield this Friday night when Pleasant Hill's storming cagers swoop down on the Pike county team in an effort to knock the Pikers out of a chance for the championship. Jerseyville took a one game lead in the loop during the past week defeating White Hall, while Pittsfield lost for the first time this season to some team other than Quincy in the Winchester tournament.

Pittsfield has the edge in hope over Pleasant Hill but Coach Chas. Hubbs' lads have sworn to avenge the overtime defeat Pittsfield chalked up against Pleasant Hill on the Pleasant Hill court. Pleasant Hill's leading conference scorer, Daniels, is the basis of the Hillmen's hopes for a victory.

Jerseyville will visit Jacksonville high at the close of the week to attempt to hand the Crimson the second defeat of the season, and bring their record to three out of four over Jacksonville teams. Jerseyville topped one game to 1 S. D. and then posted out the Tigers at Jerseyville, and defeated the Crimson once before this season.

The Greene county tournament will keep the Greene entries in the conference busy, except this week none of the games counting in the final standing of the conference.

BOBBY JONES

TALKS "GOLF"

By Dillon Graham
Associated Press Sports Writer
Atlanta, Jan. 27.—Bobby Jones pushed away a dish with the remains of what had been a fat chunk of chocolate ice-cream, slumped in his chair to a lounging posture and was ready to talk of all things—golf. And golf, at this time, naturally centered in Bob's return to competition in March, and the event that will place him back in circulation—the Open Invitational tournament of the Augusta National Golf club.

"Ah-um," said Bobby, this being incidental to a little flouting. "I think a four-round total of 288 strokes should win the tournament." Par is 71.

"Our course is really not difficult, but," he hurriedly qualified, "I doubt if anyone will make a monkey of it. You see it all depends on the weather and the wind. If the ground and greens are wet or damp and you can bang the approaches up to the pin, there may be some fine scoring. x x x."

And will Calamity Jane be ready to run down the put? "No," Jones replied. Bobby is returning for a brief stay but Calamity Jane's retirement from tournament play four years ago was permanent. The putter is serving as a model now in a club factory. "I'm going to use a new set most of the time now."

"You remember that big drive I had?" he asked. As if anyone could forget that hefty war club that helped him to win so many championships. "I sent that over to the Royal and Ancient golf clubs at St. Andrews, Scotland, a few days ago. I gave it to the club as a present."

And where were the others of his famous collection? "Oh, they're here and there. I've got most of them in my locker out at East Lake," he answered. "I'm using a new set most of the time now."

Bobby says he cannot settle down to any routine plan of practice for the Augusta open. "I'll spend several weeks in August and probably will go over there a week in advance for some final polishing."

This probably was an unfair query, for Bob is a little plump. He grinned and looked at the desert dish. "That doesn't look much like dieting, does it? No, I'm a little heavy but I intend to keep my weight. I've been eating lots of backbone and spareribs."

WESTERN GOLFERS TO HOLD TOURNEY AT PEORIA CLUB

Chicago, Jan. 27.—(P)—The Western Golf association will hold its open tournament again this year. It had been recommended that the open be abandoned because of lack of support, but an offer from the Country club of Peoria, Ill., proved so attractive that the association last night awarded the event for June 15, 16, 17. The amateur tournament will be played at the Twins Hills Golf Club, Oklahoma City, July 9-14, and the junior again will be held over a Chicago course, the date and site to be named later. Twin Hills was selected for the amateur on the invitation of Keefe Carter, Sr., and Keefe Carter, Jr., the latter a former titleholder.

NEW CODE IN NEW

YORK FOR MATMEN

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
New York, Jan. 27.—Wrestling will operate under a new code in New York state henceforth, under a new set of regulations designed to eliminate some of the squinted evils of the grunting-and-croaning industry.

Chief items in the new code: As before, wrestling matches still are regarded as exhibitions but any bout may be labeled a "contest" if the New York state athletic commission gives special permission. All wrestlers must be paid by check with a minimum of $10 per match. Promoters must keep books, open to scrutiny at all times.

All wrestlers must wear shoes. Scratching, striking, gouging, butting, strangle holds, Joe Savoy's special "drop kick" and the deliberate tossing of an opponent out of the ring, all are fouls and wrestlers who commit them may have their licenses revoked.

Promoters or match-makers are forbidden to act as managers. Bouts may be extended beyond the 11 p. m. time limit if the inspector assigned to all shows given permission. In a general way, the code seeks to break up wrestling troupes, syndicated match-making and payment of salaries to wrestlers instead of purses. Jack Pfeffer, wrestling promoter, recently charged before the commission that wrestlers talked over their bouts before putting them on and that a champion's tenure of office depended upon his drawing power at the gate. The charges were denied by leading promoters and wrestlers.

"We have to take this matter of wrestling very seriously," said Gen. John J. Phelan, commission chairman, in promulgating the new rules, "because the state law regulating both boxing and wrestling lays down definite regulations. We have the power to classify wrestling as an exhibition. We thus avoid the impossible task of trying to determine how much of it is genuine and how much is otherwise. But we cannot avoid responsibility of regulation put upon us by the state."

Since wrestling here is on an exhibition basis, the commission pointed out, the question of honesty of effort was not an issue.

STILL QUESTION WHETHER GELBERT CAN PLAY OR NOT

St. Louis, Jan. 27.—(P)—The puzzle over whether Shortstop Charley Gelbert is or isn't ready to return to the baseball was after an absence of a year as the result of a hunting accident, is about to be solved.

With the Cardinals' infield plans up in the air because of conflicting reports about Gelbert's condition, Branch Rickey has decided to go to Bradenton, Fla., within the next ten days to visit the shortstop.

"It's necessary for me to see Gelbert so I can determine my shortstop plans for 1934," Rickey said. "We have about a half dozen shortstops on the Cardinal list now, but if Gelbert is able to return to duty this season the list would be revised, and I want to find out as quickly as possible just what shall be done."

If Gelbert is unable to return to duty, Lee Durocher, the veteran, is regarded as the leading shortstop candidate, although Burgess Whitehead, flashy young second baseman from Columbus, may be given a trial at the post.

MAROONS WIN
Chicago, Jan. 27.—(P)—After being held to a four point lead at the half, Chicago speeded up tonight to defeat Wheaton College, 34 to 23, in a non-conference basketball game. The game was ragedly played and during the first half both teams missed many shots. The Maroons led, 11 to 7, at the end of the opening period. Bill Haarlow, with four field goals and four foul shots, led the scoring. Bill Lang dropped in four long shots for Chicago.

NAME 20 TEAMS IN RUNNING FOR TOURNAMENT BIDS

Catholic Authorities to Select 16 Teams and Make Drawings Next Saturday Afternoon at Springfield. Pick Likely Field.

Twenty teams at present are in the running for invitations to the state Catholic high school tournament to be played at Springfield, March 2, 3 and 4, the executive committee of the organization sponsoring the tournament announced last night after a meeting yesterday. Sixteen teams will be selected from the twenty now in the running, and pairings will be made next Saturday afternoon at Springfield.

Athletic Director Father Phillip Newman, of Routh high, who attended the meeting, gave out a list of the teams upon his return to Jacksonville last night. Father Newman met with Father J. P. Rees, Springfield, Father J. D. Cummings, of Corpus Christi, Galveston, Father Bernard Zinner, of Spalding, Peoria, and Father J. T. Lynch, of St. Patrick's, Kankakee, and this group narrowed the field for the tournament down to 20 teams.

Trinity, the defending champions from Bloomington, will be extended an invitation. Although their team is small this year, they have been coming along rapidly lately. St. Joseph of Rock Island probably will be extended a bid in view of their season thus far. They recently defeated Rock Island H. S. 19-16.

Other teams in the running at present are Spalding of Peoria, past champions several times; Cathedral of Springfield; Cathedral of Belleville; Central of East St. Louis; St. Joseph's of Cairo; St. Joseph's of Caryle; St. Joseph's of Woodstock; St. Mary's of Moline; St. Bede's of Peru; Marmon of Aurora; St. Patrick's of Kankakee; Quincy Academy; St. Teresa of Decatur; Aquin of Freeport; St. Thomas of Rockford; St. Paul of Highland and Routh of Jacksonville.

SWINE MARKET RULES STRONG

Chicago, Jan. 27.—(A)—The hog market ruled strong today in active dealings. The fresh run of 11,000 carried 9,000 direct to packers. Shipments were active purchasers, taking 1,500 head, at prices unchanged from Friday.

The top stood at $27.75 with the bulk of good butchers selling at $34.00 to $37.00. Hogs finished the week 15 cents higher than the week before, despite the fact the marketings during the week, 209,800 head, comprised the largest week's supply in two years. Government buying helped sustain values, but a gradually broadening consumer demand was the main prop of the market.

Cattle were nominally steady and generally 25 to 50 cents lower. The top during the week was $7.25, but low late sales were above $7.

Sheep were also nominally steady. Fat lambs topped at $9.50 during the week, the highest price since June, 1931. Late sales were around $9.

ART DISPLAY AT DECATUR

The Jacksonville Art Association has received a notice of an important exhibit of mountain handcraft articles at the Decatur Institute, opening Jan. 28.

Decatur is the mid-western town which will have this display. It comes to them from Brooklyn New York. The exhibit embraces a wide variety of everything artistic made by the mountaineers. The Jacksonville public is cordially invited to visit the Decatur Institute and view these articles.

Mrs. M. Goldring of St. Louis is here for a few days' visit with her husband, who is connected with the Froelicher-Spiesberger Co.

SPRINGFIELD WILL ENTERTAIN BANKERS

J. E. Mitchell, president of the Illinois Bankers association, announces that the next annual convention of the association will be held in Springfield on May 21, 22, 1934.

The Abraham Lincoln hotel has been designated convention headquarters and all sessions will be held there. Henry G. Bengel, vice president of the Illinois National Bank, Springfield, is chairman of the hotel committee.

The Springfield Clearing House association, through its secretary, F. H. Luers, extended the invitation and will have charge of local arrangements. The members are—First National Bank, Paschal E. Hatch, president; Illinois National Bank, Logan Coleman, president; Springfield Marine Bank, G. W. Bunn, president.

Married Flirt's

BEGIN HERE TODAY

GYPSE MORELL and TOM WEAVER are married on the same day as LILA HOTLING and DICK BURNETT. Gypsy keeps her job teaching in a settlement school.

Gypsy has to struggle to keep her place in Tom's home. Her jealousy of wealthy MATHIO MORGAN, who once asked Gypsy to marry him and whom they meet at the Blisses' home, makes the doctor tell Gypsy she is to have a baby she gives up for her. Summer comes on and Gypsy is intensely sorry for her in-laws.

Lila makes an unexpected call at the cottage. She seems restless and discontented and for the first time Gypsy is sorry for her in-laws.

THE summer waned all too swiftly. Blue days, golden days there were in August, when Gypsy flung her arms aloft for sheer joy in living, when the borders blazed with phlox and harkspur and dianthus; when the nights were drenched with dew and you awakened to cool, scented, blowy mornings.

There never was such a summer. The Morells came over from Blue Hills in the shabby car and there were parties on the grass under a larch apple tree. Steaks were broiled over the crude outdoor oven. Tom rushed home early, exulting in the luxury of his own vine and fig tree, and there were two wonderful weeks when he was home altogether.

The corn ripened under the sun along the highways. The fruit hung heavy on the trees. Hay was stacked and golden tents in the fields and on one gorgeous day in late September Gypsy's child was born. She had been rushed to the city hospital the night before. For 10 long hours she had writhed in pain, digging her nails into her flesh, trying to stifle the cries that were wrung from her.

At 8 o'clock the baby's wall sounded and the watching young husband, pacing the corridor outside, sagged against the distempered walls in an agony of relief.

"It's over, it's over," he whispered. When they allowed him in to see her an hour later she was lying white and seemingly broken in the narrow bed. Only her eyes were alive, moving alertly in her tangled young face.

"Tommy, oh, darling!" Tears of weakness ran down her cheeks and his own eyes watered in sympathy.

"Was it so terrible, dearest?" He had her hands in his. His eyes were roving anxiously over her dear, familiar features.

She shut her eyes on a long sigh. "Let you see the baby?" "Not yet, honey. The nurse said . . ."

A figure in striped and crackling cambric glided in. "Time's up, Mr. Weaver. This young lady must get some sleep." And he had to go, after a kiss and a whispered admonition.

"She's all right, She's perfectly fine," the doctor told him. "She came through splendidly." But Tom was not convinced. His office mates rallied him robustly on his grimaces. "As if they knew what it was all about," the poor fellow thought witheringly, wincing to think of the long night and Gypsy's smothered cries. But afterward when they brought the child to him that evening, and he gazed upon him—his own son—his spirits mounted. It was going to be all right—it was going to be all right! He and Gypsy and the little fellow! Why, that was an unbeatable combination.

"I don't know where to begin," she said wearily. The living room was dusty, the chairs were all in the wrong places, pictures were awry. There were half dead flowers in the blue vase. The kitchen was piled high with soiled clothes, week-old newspapers. There were crumbs on stove and sink. The coffee pot, with a scuff of grounds on spout and lid, stood on the window sill.

It was the first morning Gypsy had got out of bed before breakfast, under doctor's orders. Now she donned one of her old summer prints and, having assured herself that the baby was warm and wasn't in a draft, she attacked the kitchen.

Wasn't Tom coming back? Would he have to battle with this disorder all day? She began to regret having let Mrs. Burby go, as wave after wave of weakness swept over her. But her spirit was valiant. She filled the dishespan with warm soapy water and stubbornly attacked the discouraging task. She had stacked the cups and saucers in the drainer and was beginning to experience the fine flavor of encouragement when she heard a thin reedy wail.

She hurried to the baby. "What is it? What does he want, the darling?"

Oh, what an idiot she was! He was used to his bath at precisely this hour. Mrs. Burby had impressed on her the importance of doing the same thing at the same time for David. And she had been forgetting.

SHE was not, really, strong enough, but it seemed worth both labor and exhaustion to be rid of the dawdling, never-silent, complaining Mrs. Burby. The first day Gypsy was carried through by sheer force of will and nervous energy. Tom tried agency after agency, but there seemed no one anxious to do cooking and general housework in a family with a brand new baby. At the end of 24 hours young Mrs. Weaver found herself almost regretting the departure of her erstwhile assistant. Her back ached and her feet were on fire. There was everything still to do. Beds were only half made, dinner half prepared. How did young mothers manage without assistance, Gypsy wondered. Was it possible that
